- 2. Mayor and City Council to recognize Mary Tipton for helping to provide Jacinto City Residents with spay and neuter program.

Mayor Diaz stated that Ms. Tipton was unable to make it today but we had Mr. R.D. Kesslin and Brenda Kocian and ask them to come up and presented a plaque of appreciation to them. Mr. Kesslin thanked them and congratulated the graduates. Mr. Kesslin stated that he was with K-9 Angels Rescue and they started something that they called the Empty Shelter Project, where they go out into the communities and do mass spaying & neutering events on a Saturday or Sunday and in six months to date they had spayed, vaccinated and micro chipped 4,747 dogs and cats all free of charge to the public. He stated that last July here in Jacinto City they did 374 animals in one day, which was a record number and nearly killed them. He stated they would be back out here on June 23rd and they would be signing up people very soon and were looking forward to getting back out here and thanked them.

Mayor Diaz thanked them for the service they offered us.

Brenda Kocian stated she helps the dog pound here in Jacinto City and she wanted to say thank you to all of them, that Kyle had been wonderful, they had a new sink, a new table next to the sink so they could wash the dogs and they had also put them in a new waterline because the old water line was rusted, they had really helped them out and Kyle and Lon had been wonderful, that they go to them and ask if they can have this and that and now she was begging for a storage building, she wanted to know if there was any way they could think about working it in the budget because they do the spay and neutering of the cats, they didn't have room for the cages to store them and they were out in the opening, they had a little room for storage at the dog pound, they only have five pens but they were moving the dogs and Becky said so far we had a 122 dogs but they were moving them and had not had to put but one down and thanks to K-9 Angles they had taken a lot of them, that Mary had been wonderful. She stated that Becky was the one that finds the rescues, Judy was the brains and she didn't know what she was, she just does what they tell her to. She ask if they could think about them a storage shed they would appreciate it and that Erick, who was the dog catcher was also a part of their group and they were working all together as a team. She stated that she wanted to say thank them, they had been wonderful and helped them out. She stated they had a little problem over the No Kill, they had a lady show up last week from Denver Harbor with a mama dog and nine puppies and we told her that she could not bring her dogs from Denver Harbor but the lady said that on our website it said we were a no Kill shelter and they were bringing them but they did find a rescue, they found a lady to take all of them and got them out of our city and not in our dog pound.

Council Member Lee congratulated the graduates, stating that it was a privilege to us to be able to recognize them and we wish them the best. He welcomed Officer Montez aboard and congratulated her. He said that speaking of police, he would like to commend our police department because in addition to their usual fine work, they had done some great work in the month or so, at least three cases they had gotten quite a few drugs off the street, stopped an armed robbery and returned all the stolen items and got five people off the streets that were committing crimes and no one was injured and he just wanted to thank them for what they did as well as all the department. God Bless all.

Council Member Garcia reminded everyone to not forget to call in for mosquitoes, as Kyle said, by law we do have to have those calls. She welcomed Officer Montez to the team and like Council Member Lee Said, there has been a lot going on in Jacinto City and she hoped she was ready for it, that we needed more ladies on the force. She congratulated the grads again and explained when the meetings were and we hoped to see them attend and see what was going on in our city.

Council Member Gonzales congratulated Officer Montez, that she was coming to work for a great police department and even a greater boss. He congratulated the graduates, stating that they worked hard for this and there were a lot of people proud of them including the ones at the Council table and wished everyone a great holiday.
